

O God,
send forth your Holy Spirit into my heart
that I may perceive,
into my mind that I may remember,
and into my soul that I may meditate.
Inspire me to speak with piety, holiness,
tenderness and mercy.
Teach, guide and direct my thoughts and senses from beginning to end.
May your grace ever help and correct me,
and may I be strengthened now
with wisdom from on high,
for the sake of your infinite mercy.

Amen.

Saint Anthony of Padua

Restless with grief and fear,
the abandoned turn to you:
in every hour of trial,
good Lord, deliver us,
O God most holy, God most strong, whose wisdom is the cross of Christ.

Amen.

Faith tells me
that no matter what lies ahead of me
God is already there.

Christ has no other hands but your hands
to do his work today;
no other feet to guide folk on their way,
no other lips but your lips
to tell them why he died, no other love but your love
to win them to his side.
Lord Jesus, thank you that we are a part of your body the church.
May we work together always to do your will
and in unity always be obedient to you, that the world may see your love in us and be drawn to you.

Amen

Almighty Father,
whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds of those in authority,
and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Prayer Diary

June 2018

St Bartholomew's Church

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is,
there is freedom.

2 Corinthians 3:17

For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form.

Colossians 2:9
