

Dear Lord

Forgive us for our apathy, for our lack of courage to speak out.
Forgive us when we walk past and don't offer help. Forgive us when we get it wrong.

We confess that we are afraid - we don't want to overcome our hidden doubts and prejudices in order to be alongside those who are different from ourselves.

We ask that you would lead us into action:
give us strength to be a voice crying for justice and peace.

Help us to step into another person's shoes,
or if they have no shoes
then not to be afraid to take off our own, peel off our preconceptions and assumptions, uncurl and spread out our toes,
and tread in their footprints.

May we be a liberating presence and offer love,

compassion and whatever is needed to act justly,
love mercy and walk humbly with our God.

Amen

Sovereign Lord, your hand has touched the dry bones of our faith, your Word has breathed

new life where there was death,

your spirit raised us up from where we lay,

your love has brought us home and to your Cross, and by your grace we stand forgiven, free.

Hallelujah!

God is our refuge in times of trouble, keeping our feet steady upon the road,
watching over us and keeping us from harm.

God is our fortress in times of distress, circling us in the safety of his arms,
granting peace when our lives are not at ease.

God is our Father who knows us so well, wanting only the best for his children,
willing always to forgive and forget.

Where does our help come from?

Our help comes from the Lord, maker of heaven and earth!

Hallelujah!

Amen

I want to know Christ — yes, to know the power of his resurrection and participation in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, and so, somehow, attaining to the resurrection from the dead. Philippians 3:10-11

But if a wicked person turns away from all the sins they have committed and keeps all my decrees and does what is just and right, that person will surely live; they will not die.

Ezekiel 18:21

Prayer Diary

March 2020

St Bartholomew's Church

Return to the LORD your God,
for he is gracious
and compassionate,
slow to anger
and abounding in love,
and he relents from sending calamity.

Joel 2:13

I can do all things through him who strengthens me. Philippians 4:13

For now the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.
The flowers appear on the earth;
the time of singing has come,
and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.
